The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington-Last week's announcement that there will be more beef this summer than in the spring was intended to bolster public confidence in the war food chief,

> Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson. However, it's likely to boom-

Inside fact is there will be less meat of all types for the civilian population in July, August, and September than in the previous three months. War Food Administration estimates show 235 million pounds more beef, 107 million pounds more veal and 13 million pounds more lamb. But counter-balancing this, the pork supply for the civilian market is expected to be 403 million pounds less this summer than in

Thus, though there should be 355 million additional pounds of beef, veal, and lamb, the overall meat supply will be 48 million pounds less.

Part of this is due to the fact that War Food Administration, in a perfect example of blundering bare-shelf policy, last year asked for a reduction in the hog crop. But in addition, pork is customarily scarce during the summer. The fall hog crop is slaughtered in the spring, and the spring crop in the fall, with very little off-season hog slaughtering.

It was announced last week that the army had generously consented to reduce its set-aside of federally-inspected meats. But what was not pointed out was that this decision was made last March, when the second-quarter meat allocations were decided. This "gesture" by the army may come back with renewed high demands for
